

Principal Examiner, GCSE (Eduqas) Religious Studies Hinduism Role Profile and Application Form

ROLE PROFILE

Purpose:

The WJEC is recruiting for a Principal Examiner, GCSE (Eduqas) Religious Studies Hinduism. Successful candidates will be responsible for the assessment of this Eduqas qualification in England.

The Principal Examiner is responsible for the setting of the question papers and mark schemes and ensuring the standardising of marking.

Responsibilities:

- set the questions and mark schemes for the question paper or approve those by other examiners
- monitor the standards of marking of all the examiners for the paper, including, where necessary, any assistant examiners and team leaders, and take appropriate steps to ensure accuracy and consistency
- advise on the appointment, training and reappointment, where necessary, of team leaders and examiners
- attend the awarding meeting, advise members on how the question paper functioned and recommend preliminary mark ranges for the judgemental grade boundaries for the question paper
- submit an evaluation report on the performance of the question paper/tasks in the examination

Principal Examiners need to be available for a minimum of five days a year which may be during term time, at weekends and during holiday time. Release payment to centres is available for term time working. This will enable the post holder to – amongst other things - attend QPECs and planning meetings, standardise assistant examiners for the examination paper, take part in the script selection process, run the examination conference, and attend the awarding conference in July.

Experience/qualifications needed

- degree in the subject specific to this qualification
- relevant assessment and teaching experience
- experience of managing people
- the ability to work well under pressure
